

Membership information

Being a member of BPS also means access to the European Journal of Pain that is published on the website of the EFIC 'European Federation of IASP Chapters'. Their website underwent some changes recently with the aim to help all users in finding easily what they are looking for. The central part of the homepage only holds the most recent news items. Less recent news can be found through the link 'news archive'.

You can subscribe to the European Journal of Pain through this link. Register as 'Non IASP member in EFIC'.
